

NEIGHBOURS: DEFINING MOMENTS (PG)

Stars: Kylie Minogue, Jason Donovan

laughter, and ups and downs from those beloved neighbours all over again. What's it like? Strewth! We shouldn't need to sell this to you.

What's the story?

Revisit some of the defining moments of one of the best-loved Aussie soaps ever. Containing 15 episodes from its 23-year history – which include weddings, romances and deaths – take a trip down Ramsay Street memory lane and experience the tears,

Forget the new shows on the box – close the curtains, crack open a tinny, make yourself comfortable on the sofa and take a sentimental journey back to Erinsborough's good old days.

Verdict: Everybody needs good Neighbours. Extras: Isn't over six hours of this enough for you?

TOP GEAR: THE GREAT ADVENTURES (TBA)

Stars: Jeremy Clarkson, James May, Richard Hammond

Follow the adventures of Jeremy, James and Richard as they embark on the US and polar specials. With some hilarious moments, us girls will love this, too!

Extras: Like we need any!

THE BROTHERS SOLOMON (TBA)

Stars: Lee Majors, Will Arnett, Will Forte

When the Solomon brothers promise their dad he'll see his first grandkid before he dies, it's easier said than done. Especially as they live in the wilderness!

Extras: Deleted scenes, Making Of, commentary.

OVERLORD (15)

Stars: Brian Stirner, Davyd Harries

First released in 1975, this weaves together filming of a new army recruit with real-life footage from the Second World War, detailing the horrific D-Day landings. Impressive.

Extras: Interviews, commentary and lots more.

PRIMEVAL (TBA)

Stars: Dominic Purcell, Brooke Langton

No, not the ITV1 drama series, but an action-packed film starring Prison Break's Lincoln (Purcell) as a disgraced TV presenter who goes to Africa to see if the tales of a giant killer crocodile are true.

Extras: Deleted scenes, etc.

books

PETITE ANGLAISE

Catherine Sanderson (£12.99, Michael Joseph)

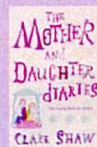

If the title seems familiar, it's because Catherine hit the headlines in 2006 as a mystery blogger who got in trouble at work for revealing details of her life at the company she worked for in Paris. Now you can read the goss in all its glory! ★★★★★

THE MOTHER AND DAUGHTER DIARIES

Clare Shaw (£6.99, Mira)

After her parents divorce, 16-year-old Jo is struggling with growing up. And her mum Lizzie – now trying to cope on her own – begins to suspect things are seriously wrong with Jo. Touching stuff. ★★★★★

RAW VOICES: TRUE STORIES OF HARDSHIP AND HOPE

Vanessa Feltz (£1.99, Ebury)

In this collection of real-life tales, Vanessa Feltz talks to people from all walks of life to share their experiences on overcoming hardship and the battles they've faced along the way. ★★★★★

VINTAGE

Olivia Darling (£6.99, Hodder)

Madeleine, Christina and Kelly are three powerful women linked to the glamorous world of the champagne industry. They are all thirsty for success, but will they be able to survive in the ambitious world of vineyards? A great, no-morals romp! ★★★★★
